Collaboration projects

Marabunta

Marabunta

Studio visits Program
2015 - 2018

Marabunta was a non-institutional program run by artists Lucila Gradín and Andrés Pasinovich. Over the period of three years we invited 10 international curators to spend a week in Buenos Aires. Each curator visited 10 artists (selected by an open call) and also offered a public lecture. Over 80 artist participated in Marabunta. Curators invited were: Cuauhtemoc Medina (Mexico.), Moacir Dos Anjos (Brazil), Miguel López (Perú), Itzel Vargas (Mexico), Marta Ramos Izquierdo (Spain), Florencia Portocarrero (Perú), Sol Henaro (Mexico), Helena Chavez Mac Gregor (Mexico), Tainá Azeredo (Brazil) and Agustin Pérez Rubio(Spain)

La Verdi

2014 - 2019

La Verdi was a non-institutional exhibition space run by artists Ana Gallardo, Gustavo Crivilone, Gabriel Chaile, Ramiro Quesada Pons, Magdalena Petroni, Marcela Sinclair, Maga Pagano, Ariel Montagnoli and Andrés Pasinovich. Over the period of five years, in our shared studio, we invited artists to make exhibitions, performances, experimental film screenings, poetry and music shows, lectures, artist gatherings to create an Artist Union, an empanada contest, a dancing contest, and parties. More than 400 artist showed their work in La Verdi.
